FBLA News

by Jenna Fuller

The Future Business Leaders of America have had a pretty jam packed schedule these past few weeks. From participating in Mini Business World to FBLA State Leadership Conference, all of the FBLA members have been present and involved in all the activities that have taken place. On March 9, we were able to take a trip to Fenimore in order to be a part of Mini Business World. An out of school activity in which all 60 members were split into teams and told to come up with their own business ideas and run their own "mini" business. The activity was a success and all teams were able to come up with their own creative business ideas. Some of the most popular were the K.I.S Machine, Invisihat, and EZ Sauce. State Leadership Conference took place in Madison from March 28-29, the state qualifiers are ready and can't wait to compete.

The top student was Blake Parker with 28 digits. Other contestants were Jessica Patterson, Jordan Parker, Kayden Rehmus, Bryr Clark, and Jazmar Tyler. After the contest, we had a few pies left over and Jade Underhill and Will Cooley jumped in and recited at least 10 digits to earn their pies.
